CHAPLAINS MESSAGE

At Easter we celebrate God's victory of evil and death. This is one of my favorite stories from my childhood that helps me appreciate that triumph for us. When I was in the sixth grade, I was the smallest kid in my class. Stephen was the biggest kid in my grade and probably in the school. He was a bully, and I was scared to death of him. Each day at lunch, we had these great games of "keep away," the prize being one of those red rubber balls. This particular day in the midst of one of those contests, it was obvious that this Stephen was trying to pick a fight with Billy. Billy was in the eighth grade, not as tall as Stephen, and much thinner. He was a good athlete and very popular. Stephen kept pestering him. I will never forget when all of sudden, Billy stopped, turned around, got up on his toes to look Stephen right in the eye. He then simply squeezed Stephen's chin with his right hand and clearly stated, "Look, kid. I'm trying to be nice to you." There was no fight that day. Billy turned to walk away, and I can still see Stephen rubbing his chin. Every time I think of that story, I think of good winning over evil. I think, "Score one for the little people." I think of Easter as Jesus staring death in the face and saying, in effect, "Leave my people alone!" When we feel overwhelmed or defeated, we should rejoice in the Jesus' Resurrection, in His victory for us. Thanks Billy for that day, but especially, Thank you Jesus! Happy Easter!

Msg. Ken

MESSAGE FROM YOUR GRAND KNIGHT

The calendar tells us that spring has arrived but the weatherman's forecast is still a wintery mix. Every day we go to our closet in confusion and say "what should I wear today is it too cool for this or too warm for that?" And at this point we just stare at the hangers waiting for something to jump out at us. It's the season to make adjustments, starting with a closet clean up. If your closet is like mine it's loaded with "stuff" you know the stuff I'm talking about.

The comedian George Carlin had a routine about "stuff" if you remember. Stuff we don't wear, or need any more. We still hang on too stuff for one reason or another, important stuff, the un-important stuff and the plain old everyday stuff. It's time to clean out that old stuff and make room, why because we have new "stuff"... Getting the clutter out of our closet is important but that also applies to us. I'm talking about the clutter in our lives that clog our brain and thought process. It surrounds us, it invades our personal space. It seems there is no escape.

Every room in the house is the same and we have let it overwhelm us. The home office has books, and papers on the desk, chair, floor, file cabinet and any flat space we can find. We need to be better organized in our lives.

Life, it seems, to a great many people, is a constant state of chaos. The bizarre thing is this state of being is not in the least bit enjoyable. Yet becoming that other organized person seems an insurmountable task. We do not know where to begin.

The truth is there is no difference and you can be that organized person. We simply need to let go of all that "stuff". We know the logic we understand the science, but we still put off getting started.

While we are talking about cleaning out, it's also a good time of the year for a renewal of our heart, mind and body. It's the season of Lent, fasting, praying and confession will unload that everyday "stuff" that is weighing you down.

The best remedy is to begin now. You know the old saying "Never put off until tomorrow the things you could do today."

Happy Easter and God Bless you all

Fraternally yours,
Frank Ingrassia, GK.

INSURANCE MATTERS

If you haven't visited the Knights of Columbus Web site in a while, I encourage you to do so the next time you're online. We've added many new features to www.kofc.org, but there are two that I wish to make you especially aware of.

The first is our member testimonial area, titled "Stages of Life." In this multi-media area, six "real-life" stories are told – stories of people at different stages of their lives. Chances are, one of them will sound a lot like you. These people talk about how their Knights of Columbus agent took the time to demonstrate for them the need for life insurance in their lives. I'll be happy to do that for you and your family as well.

The second is our Life Insurance Calculator. This handy, easy-to-use online tool was developed to allow you, in about 15-20 minutes, to estimate the amount of life insurance coverage you need. The information you'll be asked to provide will be basic (the type most folks would tend to have at their fingertips), and secure (it's intended to be used solely for the purposes of the online calculator – the Order won't capture it or share it with anyone, including me!).

I stress that the number you'll receive is an estimate, based on the basic information you provide. It's not intended to take the place of the free, professional needs analysis that I'll be happy to provide for you and your family. Give me a call – I'd like to meet with you.

Please give me a call.

Bob Dodds (609) 978-6396
