CHAPLAINS MESSAGE

I want to thank this Council, but I also wish to express gratitude for the Knights of Columbus in general, who have long championed the cause to “Keep Christ in Christmas!” While you enthusiastically and courageously continue the battle, it is easy to forget the word that is at the heart of the controversy. The word “Christmas” is a combination of two Latin words: Christus and missus. These two words mean: Christ is sent. That is the heart of the message at this time of the year. “God so loved the world that He gave His only Son, that whoever believes in Him should not perish but have eternal life.” (John 3:16) It is sad that many have rejected or been indifferent to this gift of God. We must respond, not with anger, but with love. It is especially to them that God reaches out. As Jesus was sent, so we are sent to share and spread the love of God in this world. As you continue to Keep Christ in Christmas let us pray for those whose hearts are closed. May we one day win them over with the witness of our faith-filled lives as Catholics and Knights. Thank you for all your many kindnesses and hard work – and Merry Christmas!

Msg. Ken

MESSAGE FROM YOUR GRAND KNIGHT

The Christmas season has different meanings to different people. Is it just a secular or a religious time of the year? Can it be both?

Many of our Christmas traditions started in different countries and can be traced back to the middle ages. The Christmas tree was first cut down and used in Germany. Its delightful fragrant sent of pine would permeate through the home and later the tree was used for fuel to heat the house. The old man with the sack is Santa Claus “Sinterklaas” in Dutch or Saint Nicholas a Christian Bishop from Turkey who gave to the poor. He secretly climbed the roof tops to drop small cloth bags of money down the chimney. His well known kindness gave rise to his fame that he could perform miracles. The Christmas card had its beginnings with English school children who practiced their writing skills on paper and then gave it to their parents for Christmas.

Today we see Christmas as a time of shopping for gifts as we visit brightly decorated shops and malls. Afterwards we exchange gifts with family and friends and share a traditional meal together and talk about old times and many other topics. Something we all look forward too.

Today, as adults we all have fond memories of Christmas long ago. I remember going with my Dad to buy a Christmas tree to be decorated with all the lights and tinsel, then setting up my Lionel trains under the tree. Dreaming about Santa with those special gifts that we hoped he would bring. On Christmas Eve going to mid-night mass with my family and hear the choir sing. Then on Christmas morning, I remember waking up to find those gifts under the tree. Today we relive those special memories, seeing them through the eyes of our children or grandchildren. The sights and sounds of the Christmas season are so very special. These are just a few of the Christmas traditions that we see and do today. But is that all there is to Christmas?

As Christians we know it's the “Advent season” or “the coming” of the greatest gift to man, the birth of our savior Jesus, Gods only son who was born of the Virgin Mary. The birth of Jesus is the greatest story ever told.

This Christmas season, open your hearts and mind and let Him enter our body and soul bring in His light to guide our daily lives.

So at this time of the year spend time with your family, cherish those memories of long ago and share the wonders of Christmas and the miracle of Jesus Christ.

Have a Merry Christmas and Happy New Year

God Bless.
Fraternally yours,
Frank Ingrassia, GK.

INSURANCE MATTERS

Tempus fugit. Time flies. The older we get, the more that statement seems to ring true. Especially as we prepare to ring in another new year. I hope that 2009 was a healthy, prosperous year for you and your family.

If you're like most people, you've made some resolutions for the New Year. If I may, I'd like to add to your list of resolutions by two. First, write them down. A resolution is really a goal for the year and, until you commit a goal to writing, it's nothing more than a wish. So write your resolutions down.

Second, visit with your professional Knights of Columbus insurance agent. The "insurance check-up" that I'll provide (free of charge, by the way!) will quickly identify any gaps in your family's life insurance program. And you'll want to fill those gaps now, not later. Unlike many other products, you need more than money to obtain life insurance. You also need good health, and no one will ring a bell warning you when your health is about to change.

Knights of Columbus life insurance offers something precious few other financial products can – guarantee. As long as you pay your premiums, the policy proceeds will be there for your beneficiaries should something happen to you. We call that peace of mind, and that's – as they say in the credit card commercial – priceless.

Bob Dodds (609) 978-6396
