CHAPLAINS MESSAGE

By now, most of us have already reserved some dates in our calendar for 2009 events. Hopefully, those dates include fun stuff like a vacation or wedding. Regardless, whether it's a desk calendar or a large wall calendar, we write in those dates so that we don't forget and also so that we don't commit to something else. Unfortunately, I must admit that on more than one occasion I have "double-booked" through my own fault! As we reserve these special dates, we normally do not write in the usual commitments. For example, we don't write in each day, "Go to work," "Attend Knight's meeting, or for the weekend, "Go to Mass." We take these for granted, in a good way. They are just part of our regular routine and commitments. Probably for most of us, the special events, like a vacation, cause more excitement, most likely because they are out of the ordinary. As we begin the year, maybe we could spend a little time reflecting on all those things that will fill up our calendar but don't actually get written down because they are routine. Most of our lives take place in those blank dates. Often, we do not fully appreciate the routine until we cannot do it, perhaps through illness. As we begin another year, let us be grateful for those special events that await us, but also be grateful, and even treat as special, the ordinary routine stuff that will make up this year. Happy New Year!

MESSAGE FROM YOUR GRAND KNIGHT

It's that time again. A new year and a new resolution. What will it be this year? We tend to make ourselves promises, only to forget them just before lent starts. That's when we make other commitments for self-sacrifice or denial. Let us not forget, however, that the New Year and Lent are also times for reflection and taking stock.

As you enter into 2009 and approach the Lenten Season let me ask you to reexamine your relationship within the Knights. Would you not consider including your Knights of Columbus in your New Years Resolution and Lenten reflection? Could you not sacrifice a little time out of your hectic life to help out a little more than you have in the past year? There are many areas we will need additional help this coming year and most of the tasks are not extensively time consuming, but do need enthusiastic planning.

If you are a member who attends meetings, we are grateful for your input and guidance. However, we need your help beyond basic attendance. If you do not attend meetings because of other commitments, we understand and appreciate your support. However, please consider serving on a committee or joining us at events through out the year.

Let us all work together in Charity, Unity and Fraternity in 2009. I know time is valuable, but without our members sacrificing that precious commodity we can no longer function as an effective fraternal organization. Please check the help wanted add in this News Letter. May this New Year bring happiness and joy to you and all of yours. God Bless.

Vivat Jesus John Pescatore G.K.

INSURANCE MATTERS

“I already have insurance at work.”

Many jobs offer some form of group life insurance. Often, this insurance is an employee benefit provided at no charge, or for small co-pay. Knowing that this coverage exists may convince someone that he doesn't need to discuss personally owned life insurance with an agent. That could be a mistake.

Most forms of group life insurance are limited in amount. That amount may be tied to a salary or some other benchmark, but often there is a cap. That cap may be dangerously low for your family's needs should you die. In fact, without a needs analysis (which I'll be happy to provide, free of charge), it may be completely unrelated to needs at death. In addition, the amount of group insurance offered is almost always reduced – and sometimes dramatically – when you retire.

Especially today, there is the very real possibility that you could lose your job. Or that your benefits could be reduced. In either case, you can find yourself without coverage. If your health has changed in the meantime, you can find yourself out of luck.

While group life helps, it does not replace the need for individually owned life insurance. I'll be happy to meet with you and provide free, custom-tailored needs analysis, so that you'll know exactly where you stand. Please give me a call.

Please give me a call.

SACRIFICE

This is a story about a young boy age 10. His parents came to him one night and sat him down to have a very serious talk. They told him that his younger sister was very sick. She was in the hospitals with a life threatening blood disorder and in need of a direct blood transfusion. They asked him if he would consider donating blood, which was a perfect match and assured him that it would not hurt. The parents were somewhat concerned when he asked if he could think it over, time being of the essence, but they agreed to give him time. After a short time he informed his parents that it would be OK.

The young boy was taken to the hospital and placed on a table next to his sister and the transfusion was started. He appeared calm and quiet as he watched the blood flow from his arm. A nurse seeing the young boy somewhat scared approached him, placing her hand on his forehead and whispered "Are you OK?" He turned to her and said "Yes. I'm ok but, how long before I die?"

This brother is the true definition of sacrifice.

Why Should Pro-life Americans March for Life in 2009?

We March for life because we are called to remind Americans about the evils created by the Supreme Court's infamous Roe v Wade decision on January 22, 1973.

Now, in 2009, we are called to inform Americans of the error of Congress approving the evil of killing human embryonic cells for experimentation.

An estimated 48,000,000 pre-born babies have been killed since 1973!

The March for Life is held in Washington, DC to lobby the Executive, Congressional and Judicial branches of our government and stop the massacre of babies!
