CHAPLAIN'S MESSAGE

As we celebrate god's gift of new life this Easter, we are invited by God to open our hearts to this abundant life. In that spirit, I share this beautiful poem entitled, "Covenant," by Sr. Margaret Halaska:

The Father knocks at my door, seeking a home for his son:

Rent is cheap, I say

I don't want to rent. I want to buy, says God.

I'm not sure I want to sell,

but you might come in and look around.

I think I will, says God.

I might let you have a room or two.

I like it, says God. I'll take the two.

You might decide to give me more some day.

I can wait, says God.

I'd like to give you more,

but it's a bit difficult. I need some space for me.

I know, says God, but I'll wait. I like what I see.

Hm, maybe I can let you have another room.

I really don't need that much.

Thanks, says God. I'll take it. I like what I see.

I'd like to give you the whole house

but I'm not sure-

Think on it, says God. I wouldn't put you out.

Your house would be mine and my son would live in it.

You'd have more space than you'd ever had before.

I don't understand at all.

I know, says God, but I can't tell you about that.

You'll have to discover it for yourself.

That can only happen if you let him have the whole house.

A bit risky, I say.

Yes, says God, but try me.

I'm not sure-

I'll let you know.

I can wait, says God. I like what I see.

HAPPY EASTER !

Father Ken, Chaplain

MESSAGE FROM YOUR GRAND KNIGHT

Michael Pangan, Santino Galati, Peter Sroczynski, Mat Wohl, Joseph Bockin, James Bockin, Andrew Picinic, John Sokol, Mat Cox & Chris Hoops. The names you see here are the ten squires who worked with us on Feb 16th at our fundraising wrestling event. Let me tell you what a fantastic job these boys did. We received many compliments from people all through the night, they were polite, friendly, and it was a pleasure to have them work with us. If this is an indication of what our squires can do, then we are truly blessed to have them. Thank you boys. These boys are our future. This to me is the most important program we can have, because with our guidance and of course good family guidance, strong faith, and moral character we will be able to rest comfortably, knowing our hard work will be carried on for another generation

And to all my brother Knights who came out in full force, and I mean full force, we had eight, maybe nine, knights and a wife help us out, with the cooking & cleanup . Thank you to every one who helped make this night a success. The house was packed, the Ninja Saint remained undefeated, and the place was rockin'. So in closing, I say God Bless you all.

Vivat Jesus Al Del Tufo G.K.

Columbian Squires

Columbian Squires is an organization of young men who have fun and share their Catholic faith, help people in need, and enjoy the company of friends in social, family, athletic, cultural, civic and spiritual activities. Every circle is sponsored by a Knights of Columbus council, and Knights serve as adult counselors to the group.

Squires circles are designed to be run both by and for young men. Through their local circle, Squires work and socialize as a group of friends, gradually developing into Catholic leaders.

Squires graduating from the program at age 18 are eligible for college and vocations scholarships offered by the Knights of Columbus Supreme Council office. They are urged to join the Knights to continue their commitment to Columbanism. The motto of the Squires is "ESTO DIGNUS" - meaning "BE WORTHY".

If you know a Catholic young man, 10 to 18 years old, consider encouraging him to join our chapter of the Columbian Squires!

The Chief Counselor of the local Squires chapter is John Sroczyński (609-698-5625).
